Amber warning
Snow & Ice

Between 12:00 Thu 9 Mar 2023 and
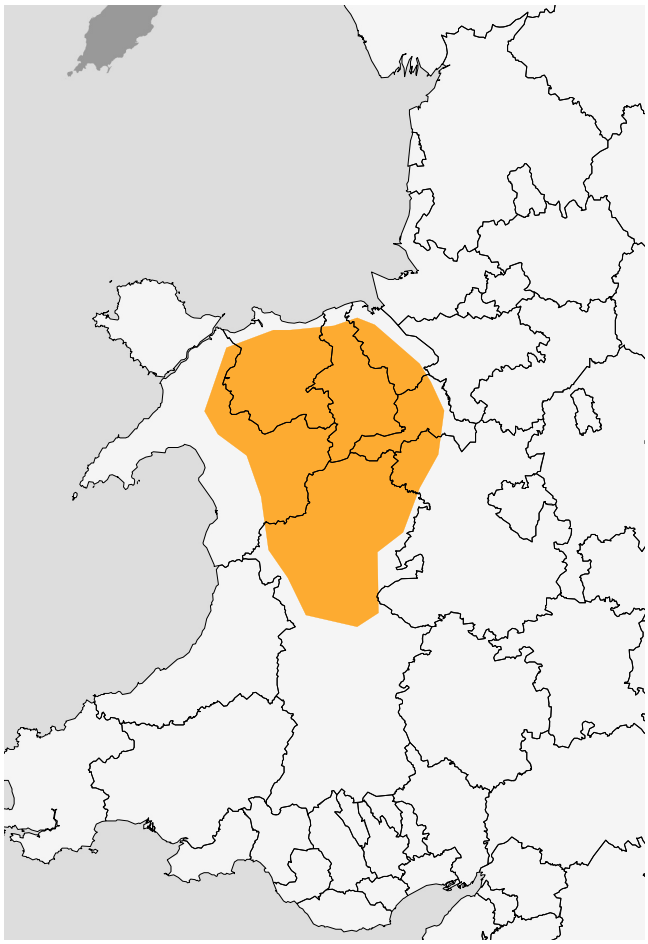
09:00 Fri 10 Mar 2023



Heavy snow is likely to cause significant disruption through Thursday into early Friday

What to expect

- Travel delays on roads are likely, stranding some vehicles and passengers
- Some delays and cancellations to rail and bus services are likely
- There is a good chance that some rural communities could become cut off
- Power cuts are likely and other services, such as mobile phone coverage, may be affected
- Injuries from slips and falls are likely on icy surfaces

Further details

Snow is expected to become persistent and, at times, heavy again later Thursday afternoon onwards into early Friday. During this time, many places are likely to see 10-20 cm of snow with a chance of up to 30 cm falling, this most likely over higher ground above 200 metres.

As well as snow, freezing rain is possible giving icy conditions in the south of the warning area, bringing additional hazards to infrastructure and travel.
